

“WHAT’S IN YOUR CUP?”

ST. PAUL’S FABULOUS WOMEN’S RETREAT
OCTOBER 28-30, 2011

We speak of wanting to leave a legacy for the next generation, but what does that mean, aside from a monetary legacy? An Italian folktale speaks of a cup that is passed from one generation to another. What has been put in your cup? The devotion of a mother, the love of a Creator, a thirst for justice, or something less positive? What would you like your cup to contain for the next generation? Are we destined to put back what we received? Using the lives of women from the Bible, medieval mystics, and contemporary women as our lens, we will explore these intriguing questions together.

ALL women are warmly invited to this year’s Women’s Retreat in the world famous Outer Banks of North Carolina, Friday, October 28th – Sunday, October 30th. Together, we’ll enjoy a weekend of food, fellowship, and fun. Invite a friend!

The cost of the weekend is $75 and scholarships are available. Please make checks payable to St. Paul’s Episcopal Church with “Women’s Retreat” in the memo line. Complete the form below and return with payment to: The Rev. Kate Jenkins by October 16th. Forms and checks can be left in Kate’s mailbox by the offices. You can also register online, but you will still need to bring in your check. Questions? Contact Kate at katejenkins@stpauls-episcopal.org or (804) 545-5405.
